

Aviation Law

AVIATION LIABILITY AND INSURANCE (ALIC)

AVIATION LIABILITY AND INSURANCE ALIC)

Provide aviation professionals with the competencies to support their organization as they engage with issues related to aviation insurance and liability, in compliance with the Chicago Convention (Doc 7300), the Montreal Convention 1999 (Doc 9740), the Rome Convention 1952.

► LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the course, participants will be able to accomplish the following :

- Describe the fundamental principles of aviation insurance
- Identify liabilities for various aviation operations and the legal framework for dealing with them.
- Identify legal and regulatory requirements for insurance coverage of certain risks and liabilities
- Identify appropriate risks, products and placing coverage to manage claims
- Apply strategies to mitigate risks through insurance

► TARGET POPULATION

- Primary Managers and employees of aviation industry regulators, operators and service providers, with or without legal education.
- Secondary Aviation professionals with an interest in aviation liability and insurance.

► STRUCTURE OF THE COURSE

- Duration: 5 days / 30 Hours
- Delivery mode: Classroom
- Language of instruction: English

Tuition Fee:
THB 62,000
USD 2,200

